THE AMICI CLUB

FOR FRIENDS OF FLAVOURS HOLIDAYS

WELCOME TO THE AMICI CLUB!

The Amici club is in its third year and we are delighted by the success and to have you all as part of our Flavours Family.

It's our way of offering our Amici, our friends, something exclusive and special to thank you for your continued loyalty and support since Flavours started over 20 years ago and to inspire you to join us again.

The holidays in this brochure, special offers and exclusive events are only available to our Amici Club members and as such are not available as part of our normal programme of holidays.

So what about joining us in Seville, our exciting new destination to do Pilates with Rosalind Hoyes or Painting with Hugh Tuckerman and be the first to experience our luxury 19th century oil mill in the grounds of a natural park.

Fancy a festive short break in Edinburgh to experience the delights of the famous Christmas markets and the wonders of this historic capital?

We have new dates for Painting and Pilates in Morocco which has been very popular amongst our Amici and this year we will be running Cooking in Morocco so let our chef take you through a taste sensation with influences from Africa, Arabia and Spain.

We run exclusive events for our Amici's every year normally in November time so do get in touch with us to find out more.

I look forward to welcoming you on one of our events and exclusive holidays.

SEVILLE - NEW DESTINATION

A destination steeped in history and a blend of cultures!

We're excited to be able to offer our Amici Cooking, Painting and Pilates holidays in our luxury 19th century oil mill in the grounds of a natural park in the Andalusian countryside close to Seville.

Plaza Del Triunfo in Seville

PAINTING, PILATES AND COOKING IN SEVILLE

You'll stay in Villa Molino, North of Seville with its charming pool and truly original garden situated within a 40 acres estate for complete tranquillity during your lessons.

You will have your own private local chef serving Andalusian delights and plenty of Cava for you to enjoy! Where better to find artistic inspiration than at the Real Alcazar with its Moorish splendour or at the steps of the colossal Gothic cathedral. Our Pilates Amici will experience the true passion of Spain through movement with a visit to the famous flamenco district in Seville. Where better to taste iberico ham than the famous Cinco Jotas bodega- a true taste sensation for foodies. Not to mention your visit to Seville itself where you will wander through the array of different cultures and will visit an authentic taberna for lunch enjoying 'tapas'

EDINBURGH

EDINBURGH FLING

Exclusively for our Amici, this luxurious Edinburgh escape will give you the chance to eat the best Scottish food, enjoy the finest accommodation in a spacious Grade-II listed house (fully fitted with all mod-cons, plus a piano and a snooker room) and catch up on Christmas shopping, if you like. Otherwise, simply enjoy Edinburgh's attractions – from art galleries to castles.

You'll return home relaxed after having had a stimulating short holiday here with us in Edinburgh. And, as it's Amici only, you'll be with like-minded Flavours fans for a few days of tasty fun. 'Slàinte!' As we say up north.

Day 1

We'll pick you up, either at Edinburgh Airport, or Waverley Station, in the heart of Edinburgh's city centre (and just 4 hours from London), to arrive at our luxurious manor-house accommodation in time for a traditionally Scottish High Tea (and your first dram of the trip). Here you'll meet your fellow Amici and settle in.

Day 2

After a hearty breakfast, we'll take you into Edinburgh city centre, just up the road, to enjoy a walking tour wandering through the old town to the new town. You will then enjoy lunch in a lovely Scottish restaurant in Stockbridge then back to the house for pre dinner drinks. Dinner will in a local fish restaurant near the harbour.

Day 3

Today, after breakfast, we'll transfer into Edinburgh for a day at leisure. We'll explore the twinkling Christmas markets and soak up the festive atmosphere. You can go Christmas shopping in the Georgian New Town, or sight-seeing in the wynds of the Old Town, perhaps. Why not climb the Scott Monument for fabulous views, or visit one of the excellent Scottish galleries, or the impressive castle? Late afternoon, you'll enjoy a gin tour and tasting at a local distillery before returning to the house for a traditional Scottish farewell dinner.

Day 4

After breakfast, depart to the railway station or Edinburgh Airport.

PARMA

LEARN ITALIAN IN PARMA

Choose your language holiday in Italy's foodie heartland, Parma, in the Emilia-Romagna region. Also famous for music, art and architecture, what better way to learn Italian than to immerse yourself in this wonderful part of the world!

Parma is the centre of an exceptional food producing area, where some of Italy's most famous produce is made, including tortellini, Parma ham, Parmesan, and balsamic vinegar. The city of Parma itself is a university city with stunning Romanesque buildings. It includes the frescoed Parma Cathedral and the pink marble Baptistry which grace the city centre.

VENICE

PILATES IN VENICE

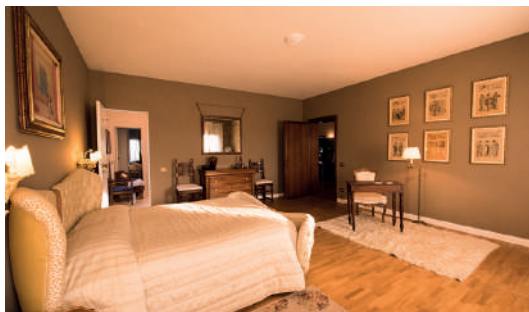

Relax into your Pilates practice in the lush countryside of the Veneto region, surrounded by rolling green hills. Experience the grandeur of Venice and its famous canals, enjoying a water taxi trip and a visit to the best viewpoint!

The Veneto region is a favourite amongst our Amici and we are delighted to offer Pilates at our gorgeous Venetian manor, which has a great mix of indoor and outdoor space to suit our wonderful Pilates groups. This holiday celebrates the history, culture, and amazing countryside combined with peace and strength of Pilates. And don't forget this region is the birthplace of Prosecco and Tiramisu - all to be enjoyed on this trip.

PUGLIA

LANGUAGE IN PUGLIA

Choose your language holiday in Puglia, Nicknamed the heel of Italy, which is a sunny coastal region in south-east of the country where olive groves meet white sandy beaches.

We base ourselves in the Salento area in the heart of southern Puglia where you can immerse yourself in the local culture with visits to Otranto, where the handsome Baroque cathedral is situated with a mosaic floor to rival Ravenna, and the city of Lecce's more than 40 churches and a noble palazzo built in the 17th and 18th centuries.
